I just want to let you know that your offer to send me a turkey for Thanksgiving is accepted with pleasure. Clover and I are particularly fond of the "Glendalough" turkey and it is certainly good of you and Mike to do this again.

I am returning the card that you sent me.

With kindest personal regards to both you and Mike.

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

My brother Mike and I want to send you a Thanksgiving turkey from the Minneapolis Star and Tribune's game farm, "Glendalough."

If you will be good enough to fill out the enclosed card and return it to me in the enclosed envelope we will then ship a turkey to the Washington plant of Swift & Company for you, and we will send you a separate card which you, or your representative, can present at the Swift plant (1431 Okie Street, N.E.) between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Monday, November 24, or Tuesday, November 25, or until noon on Wednesday, November 26.

If you are not going to be in Washington for Thanksgiving, we will be glad to ship the turkey and have it delivered to you wherever else you would like it, if you will so indicate that on your card.

Or, if you would prefer to get the turkey for Christmas instead of for Thanksgiving, please indicate that on the card. But, in any event, please return the card promptly to me.

Mike joins me in sending you warm regards.

Sincerely,

John Cowles
